

Roy Odia

(437) 981-6494

roy.odia@ontariotechu.net

www.linkedin.com/in/roy-odia-02725526a/

385 Gibb Street

Oshawa, ON L1J 1Z4

Objective

- To gain new skills and customer service experience.

Highlights of Qualifications

- Experience with computer operation and Microsoft applications.
- Good communication and teamwork skills, collaborating with multiple health science students, kinesiology, and medical laboratory science students to complete team projects.
- Conducted personal research projects, allowing for the development of independent work ability.

Education

Ontario Secondary School Diploma	June. 2020
The Great Lakes College of Toronto Toronto, Ontario
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Graduated with an average of 95%
Bachelor of Science, Health Science	June. 2024
University of Ontario Institute of Technology Oshawa, Ontario
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Recipient of a university in-course scholarship for a year.• Placed on the university's Deans list in the 4th year
National CPR Foundation	Nov. 2024
Standard CPR/AED/First Aid (Adult/Child/Infant/Choking) certification

Volunteer Work Experience

Multiple Division Assistant

July. 2023 – till date

Durham outlook for the needy | Oshawa, ON

- Gained the ability to adapt to, communicate, and work with teams of different people to accomplish team-specific tasks, like working with the food organization and clean-up groups.
- Gained customer service experience from serving homeless and disabled Canadians.
- Collaborated with people to formulate a plan to manage activities to ensure all preparations for food services were met.
- Developed time management skills when a deadline must be met in a few hours.
- Gained the ability to implement instructions received from superiors and utilized their constructive criticism.

Independent project, project: Research Proposal Paper

Project Researcher and Editor

Sept. 2023 – Apr. 2024

Research Applications I & II | HLSC 4996U, 4997U

- Gained experience in time management and long-term project planning by developing a final research paper examining the effects of abaloparatide medication on post-menopausal bone health.
- Gained long-term project experience after completing a research proposal paper consisting of three main phases: a proposal outline, in-class presentations, and a final research paper.
- Utilized peer-reviewed resources and credible websites to develop a research proposal outline that included a research question, study design, ethical issues, and potential challenges.
- Demonstrated the proposal paper study work in an in-class presentation using PowerPoint.
- Developed a final research proposal paper utilizing Microsoft Word, which received a high academic grade for the project.